

Sale of shareholdings by Non-Executive Director now complete

9 Nov, 2018 – As previously announced to the market on 2 November 2018, Non-Executive Director Yossi Keret sold a portion of his shareholdings in the Company to meet some personal financial obligations.

Mr Keret has sold 10 million shares in total after they had been in escrow for three years to cover taxes and for personal obligations. Given his strong support for the Company as it continues its progress towards commercialising its technology, Mr Keret has advised that he does not presently intend to sell any further shares over the next 12 months, although he reserves the right to do so.

The Appendix 3Y in relation to the final tranche of shares sold is attached to this announcement.

About Weebit Nano Limited

Weebit Nano is a leader in the development of next generation computer memory technology, and plans to become the new industry standard in this space. Its goal is to address the growing need for a significantly higher performance and lower power computer memory technology. Weebit Nano's ReRAM technology is based on fab-friendly Silicon Oxide, allowing the company to rapidly execute, without the need for special equipment or preparations. The company secured several patents to ensure optimal commercial and legal protection for its ground-breaking technology.

Weebit Nano's technology enables a quantum leap, allowing semiconductor memory elements to be significantly cheaper, faster, more reliable and more energy efficient than the existing Flash technology. Weebit Nano has signed an R&D agreement with Leti, an R&D institute that specialises in nanotechnologies, to further develop SiOx ReRAM technology.
